What is ACE Club?

We're an out of school childcare service, providing quality play opportunities for your child, focused on developing their confidence, independence and social skills.

Our experienced team of passionate playworkers are on hand, planning fun games and activities for your child to enjoy!

We are a child-led service for children aged 4-12 years old. Using the indoor and outdoor environment, to meet all children needs and interests. With fun planned activities, sport, and craft, for children to join in with alongside their natural play and games.
