

EXTREME READING CHALLENGE

Dear Parents/ Carers,

Where is the most extreme place you have read?

We are running a competition over the Christmas holidays. Your challenge is to get a photo of your children reading in the most unlikely of places. An example could be up a climbing frame or on a trampoline. The more creative - the better! However, we encourage you to keep safe. We would love the whole family to get involved so please feel free to join in. We are really looking forward to seeing who in the school has such passion for reading that they have to do it anywhere and everywhere.

Please can the children bring in a hard copy of their photographs (not digital please) along with the entry cost of £1. This can be given to your child's class teacher and all money raised will go towards buying new story books for the classroom and library.

All the pictures will be added to what we hope will be a fantastic display of our children reading in a whole host of weird and wonderful places and we look forward to sharing this with you in the new year.

Thank you for your support.
